DESERET EVENING NEWS. PRESIDENT GEO. Q. CANNON

The Court Says the Case be Closed Till Mr. Pra Answers. This morning there was anot largenttendance of auti-"Mormons" and a few "Mormons" at the City Hall, where Judge Andersen's branch of the Third District Court making its inquiry with reference the eligibility of "Mormons" for threnship.

LeGrand Young stated to the oursiliant theraseof the defense was inrough with the exception of a little documentary evidence and the estimany of two or three witnesses, to of whom was sick. He wanted to know, however, what the court proposed to do with Mr. Penrase's

Mr. Pontose's cross-examination was completed.

Leclaral Young thought that the most the court should ask was that that the minous should ask was that the testimony should be stricken out. The defense wanted it in. If all the eblectors want is emsergamination, they could have done so without referring to Mr. Pennose's private matters. Their whim should not be allowed to block this whole rose, iscume the witness would not publicly state his family affairs. The defense wanted to know their slanding.

Ouri-Mr. Penrose's testimony will not be considered till he sub-vision.

will not be considered till he seli-mila to cross-examination.

LeGrand Young said they wanted to introduce the documents referred to by Mr. Pienrose as evidence.

Baskin said there would be no ob-jection to that.

R. W. Young offered in evidence a letter of Col. Steptoe and several other United States officers and officials, recommending Brigham officials, recommending Brigham young for reappointment in Gov-eron, and instifying to his firm mi-herence to the Constitution of the United States.

The court, on Baskin's objection,
